Project: Quinta with 2 houses and annex on 3 ha near Luz de Tavira

There are two traditional houses attached to each other.
The main house consists of a dining/living room, rustic kitchen, 2 bedrooms and a family bathroom.
The second house consists of a bedroom with en-suite bathroom, bedroom with wardrobe, bathroom. There is a separate entrance to a small annex with a bedroom and bathroom for guests.
Both houses have been renovated in 2010 one with wooden beam high ceilings.
Across the second house is a large garage/storage which with some creativity could be transformed into a large open space living area and kitchen.
The large agricultural plot is flat with many carob trees, olive trees some fruit trees, an "Eira", water tank, cistern, a bore hole and agriculture water from the dam.
A typical Portuguese Quinta with a beautiful large land, lots of tranquillity and peace near Moncarapacho and Tavira.
